

ETH Zürich D-ARCH

09.04.2018, 16.00–18.00

ONA Focushalle E7

STEFANO BOERI
Architecture and Nature

conversation with

PRO
Anne Lacaton

How can Architecture include living nature as a constitutive element—and not as a simple decoration? How can architecture dialogue with the unpredictable and uncanny presence of nature? Can the inclusion of living nature inside architecture seriously contribute to reverse Climate Change (reducing air pollution, absorbing CO<sub>2</sub> and increasing living species biodiversity)? Should we consider a kind of a non—anthropocentric urban ethic?